

105.1576
Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 124.

124/Gibson

November 19, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to #28 Liberty St., Middletown, N.Y., and there made inquiry for Benjamin Gibson.

The woman whom Operative interviewed at the last named address, advised Operative that there was no one by that name living at that address - She advised Operative that she had been there quite sometime, but that she had never heard of anyone by the name of Gibson having been at that address.

Operative next proceeded to a public telephone and called up Middletown 1327-M, and upon receiving an answer to the above telephone call made inquiry for Benjamin Gibson. The woman who answered the telephone at that address, advised Operative that there was nobody by the name of Gibson living there.

Operative next called Information, and advised that although the telephone book showed Benjamin Gibson, #28 Liberty St., Middletown, N.Y., 1327-M, that upon calling that number the advice would be that there was no Gibson at that address - Whereupon the Information Operator advised Operative that that number under the name of Gibson had been discontinued quite sometime ago, and that the number was now assigned to another subscriber.

Operative then proceeded to the Western Union Telegraph Office and consulted the Suburban Directory for any Gibsons in or about Middletown, N.Y., and found the following:-

Isaac Gibson, Clinton St., Cornwall on the Hudson, N.Y.
B. W. Gibson, 123 So. George St., Goshen, N.Y.
Edward Gibson, Florida Road, Goshen, N.Y.
F. M. Gibson, South Street, Goshen, N.Y.
Miss Grace Gibson, Monroe, N.Y.
Frank Gibson, 115 Carter, Newburgh, N.Y.
Miss Gladys Gibson, 101 Ovlk Place, Newburgh, N.Y.
Hugh Gibson, 296 Grand, Newburgh, N.Y.
William Gibson, Balmville, N.Y. (Newburgh)
Thomas B. Gibson, 86 Walnut St., Walden, N.Y.

Operative then proceeded to the Police Station and there interviewed the Lieutenant in charge and also the Chief of Police, in reference to